SuperConcepts announces new interim CEO

SuperConcepts is pleased to announce Adrian Urquhart as the new interim CEO, effective 1 February.

Mr Urquhart was previously Chief Financial Officer and General Manager of Product at SuperConcepts.

“Adrian is a strong and capable internal candidate with an intimate knowledge of the services having fulfilled several executive roles within the SuperConcepts Group since 2012,” said Richard Grellman, SuperConcepts Chair.

“This gives us the stability and continuity our customers expect while we conduct a thorough search to ensure we have the best leadership for SuperConcepts,” said Mr Grellman.

Mr Urquhart said he looked forward to an exciting year ahead for SuperConcepts.

“We have a big year ahead in which we will continue to enhance our service delivery, simplify customer experiences and deliver value through our investment in technology across our market leading SMSF solutions.” says Mr Urquhart.

Mr Grellman thanked outgoing CEO Natasha Fenech who will commence a new role in the insurance industry on February 28.

“Natasha leaves a strong team focused on continuing our mission to deliver market leading SMSF solutions and services” said Mr Grellman.

Outgoing CEO Natasha Fenech welcomed the decision and will assist with a smooth transition.

“Adrian is an outstanding executive leader and stakeholders who have worked with him over the years can take comfort in the decision to have him at the helm of the leadership team going forward” says Ms Fenech.

About Adrian Urquhart

Adrian has led the SuperConcepts team responsible for all finance functions, including financial reporting, tax and accounting, risk and compliance, mergers and acquisitions and procurement. Adrian was also responsible for the product management function and SuperConcepts’ strategy. An accomplished senior leader with over two decades’ experience across law, finance and financial services, Adrian has previously held roles at AMP, Orica, Morgan Stanley and Clayton Utz.
